NOTE.—The roster of each of the several organizations here given contains the names of officers and enlisted men on the rolls on the occasion of their annual inspection and muster. Date immediately following name of Guardsman is that of present rank; "S. W." indicates Spanish War service with present organization and in lowest grade; U. S. service in other organization or grade is otherwise indicated and in brackets, such service in case of officers being followed by National Guard record.

As all Guardsmen are expected to at least qualify as marksmen, latter are not indicated. Those who attained higher qualification at Creedmoor in 1902 are indicated thus: *Sharp-shooter; †Expert; ‡Distinguished Expert.

SECOND BRIGADE.

Headquarters, Municipal Building.

Headquarters' Night—Monday.

Prior to the Revolutionary War and for some time after the War of 1812, the organized militia of Kings County was embodied in a single regiment, known as the "64th," the direct progenitor of the present 13th, and formed a part of the 44th Brigade, which comprised also the militia organizations of New York, Queens, Suffolk, and Richmond Counties, until May 13, 1847, when the brigade districts were reorganized, Kings, Queens, and Suffolk Counties being then known as the 5th, and the Legislature passed a bill entitled "An Act to amend the Act to provide for the enrollment of the militia and to encourage the formation of companies," which formed companies, which organization in regiment of artillery and cavalry in the 5th Brigade, of said brigade districts, and each district into 8 companies.
